

Nritya Sankalpa (www.nrityasankalpa.org)

Director/ Guru's Name : Savitha Viswanathan

Savitha Viswanathan is a graduate and distinguished dancer from Kalakshetra Foundation, Chennai, the premier institute of Bharatanatyam founded by late Smt. Rukmini Devi Arundale. Ever since her arangetram in the year 1981, Savitha, has performed at various prestigious forums in India like the ICCR, Sahitya Kala Parishad, Mylapore Fine Arts Society and many more forums in the U.K, U.S.A, Singapore , Nepal & Thailand. A skilled teacher, Savitha has over 15 years of teaching experience. She is a graded artist of Doordarshan (National television of India) and also a panel member at the Fulton County Arts Council.

Savitha is the Founder-Director of Nritya Sankalpa, a reputed Bharatanatyam training institute in Atlanta. Nritya Sankalpa's curriculum is based on the defined syllabus followed at Kalakshetra, Chennai. Nritya Sankalpa has regular classes for Bharatanatyam, summer camps for folk dances, workshops, seminars & training programs. Nritya Sankalpa has conducted two major productions involving its students and esteemed guest artists from Kalakshetra - "ARPAN - an offering", a fundraiser for impoverished students in rural India and "Bard of the Lost Spirit", based on a Kerala folklore. The students of the institution have participated widely in local & national arenas. Nritya Sankalpa is also proud to have students who have won the coveted first position at Cleveland Aradhana Bharatanatyam Competition & the Level 1 award by the National Foundation for the Advancement in the Arts & the first position at the national level of the KCCNA Convention 2010.

Contact Details

8325 Friarbridge Drive, Suwanee, GA 30024
School : 770.623.9266
Cell: 678.613.0436

Email : nrityasankalpa@yahoo.com

